

Academic Success Program (ASP)

Designed for first-year students who find themselves in academic difficulty at the end of their first semester, ASP provides opportunities for students to meet with academic counselors to explore issues underlying their academic performance and to explore a variety of strategies for fulfilling their personal goals and academic potential.