

Support for Student-Athletes

The counselor for student-athletes, whose office is located in the Office of Academic Support, meets with first-year student athletes during the fall semester and at-risk student athletes during the spring semester to monitor and support their academic needs.