

Divisional Support Program (DSP)

DSP services first-year students at Niagara University who have been recommended to the director of the Office of Academic Support by the dean/director of the division to which the student has applied. DSP provides weekly one-on-one progress conferencing for its students. The focus of these meetings is on the development of academic skills and of an individual support network to help program students succeed at Niagara.