

4/13/05

Policy regarding overload credits abroad:

Students participating in study abroad programs that allow over 16 credit hours for no additional charge to Niagara University will not be charged overload tuition at Niagara. However, students attending programs that charge for additional credit will be charged overload tuition at Niagara University's overload rate.